

SINEAD

AGED: 32

OCCUPATION: house-cleaner, would-be cam-girl

Character Breakdown:

Sinead was born on Eris and lived there until shortly after Sadie disappeared. She had difficulties coming to terms with the disappearance and potential murder of the girl she had grown up with; and the role she played the last night Sadie was seen alive.

Sinead returned to Eris three years ago, after her father died and left her his small cabin and property.

Sinead is into yoga, meditating, tarot cards and is constantly seeking a sense of enlightenment or inner peace. She considers herself a feminist, a sex-positive feminist, but many would disagree.

Her fatal flaw is vanity. She is hooked on social media, and has an almost pathological need to be considered the most desirable. Everything she does is done for show, including the meditation.

She works as a cleaner with the Witch's Broomstick Cleaning Co. She has no other trade, having spent her 20's as a party girl and raver. She is currently trying to build a clientele as a web-cam girl.

CASTING NOTE: Ethnic origin is open, casting focuses on interest in the role. The character will shift with collaboration from the actor.

ELENA

AGED: 47

OCCUPATION: house-cleaner, activist, artist

Character Breakdown:

Elena went to art school because she liked creating art, but she never has the confidence to finish anything she starts. She used to live and work in the city as a background painter for theatre and as a props assistant in film and TV.

A year ago she met her current boyfriend Lucien at a Socialist gathering. Their parasitical relationship will be the end of Elena unless she can reclaim her own identity and leave. Something that becomes more challenging once they are both entangled in stealing a valuable piece of art from one of the cleaning clients.

Elena is smart but lacks the self awareness to take responsibility for own choices. She can blame Luc for her lack of focus and productivity. He is making her stupid, he is making her poor, he is the reason she is stuck on Eris Island.

SANDI

AGED: 54

OCCUPATION: house-cleaner, mum

Character Breakdown:

Sandi has three children. John (32) and Lyssandra (18) from her prior marriage. She got pregnant again from a one night stand at 45 and decided to keep the baby.

Sandi is always one step away from losing the house she owns. Her child support payments stopped recently when Lyssy reached 18. Lyssy helps take care of her little brother Jacob (9) who has down syndrome but she and her mother both know this has to end, though they don't talk about it.

Her relationship with her son John has been strained since she got pregnant at 45. They both try to maintain contact.

The money from the heist would allow Sandi to pay off her house, help Lyssy go to school and put money away for Jacob's care when he is older. The risk of going to jail should they be caught dictates her life, but she has always taken risks.

Sandi is still a romantic, and despite everything still holds out hope of falling in love.

LUCIEN

AGED: 41

OCCUPATION: odd-jobs

Character Breakdown:

Lucien is charming, resourceful and independent. He is a porn addict and a creature of immediate gratification. He has a difficult time planning ahead, preferring to see himself as living in the present, though he spends a great deal of time in the past.

Lucien's ambition is to live a self-sufficient life entirely off-grid. He doesn't, however, really want to do the work necessary to get there, instead he rides on the kindness and generosity of others - currently that is Elena.

In his late thirties Lucien spent his youth in a variety of punk bands. His lack of commitment and free-loading meant he was never in the same band long. However, the mythology he tells himself (and others) is that he was a punk star and was responsible for any success the bands had after he left.

Lucien tries to keep his vulnerability hidden, but inevitably is burst out usually damaging those around him.
